

MEET OUR DOCTORS

Dr. Terry Wulster:

Dr. Terry celebrates 35 years in practice as founder and director of Denville Community Chiropractic Center. Dr. Terry designs an individual program to address your health needs. In addition to valuable chiropractic care, including cranial-sacral techniques, she incorporates holistic health tools. These include nutrition, homeopathy, and muscle release techniques. Physical therapy modalities are incorporated when necessary.

Dr. Andy Smith:

Dr. Andy's 25 years of practice includes the unique experience of having consulted and practiced in over 200 Chiropractic offices across New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania, allowing him to successfully serve thousands of patients while gaining vast experience in patient care and treatment protocols. Dr. Andy welcomes the opportunity to serve patients of all ages and health care challenges. 2017 NJ Family Magazine Kid's Favorite Docs Award.
